

You love the idea
of yourself loving animals... or maybe you just like looking at them.

You value what animals can do
for you, not their personal
freedoms.

But ownership
and domination
is not real
love.

You love "pets",

YOU ARE NOT AN ANIMAL
LOVER

You love animals
the way you love
consumables,
objects, or
concepts.

When you say you love animals, it is no different than saying you "love pizza", "love horror
movies", "love video games" or "love crochet".

You derive pleasure or enjoyment from them.

It's completely different from saying you love a friend or family member, because consciously or not, you see animals as objects, not beings.
